TORONTO TIDINGS

Miss Edna Egginton attended the O. A. D. social in Hamilton on May 17th, and spent that week-end with her numerous friends in the "Ambitious City."

As the JOURNAL will be a special school number with its issue of June 12th, the writer will send in the news, intended for that issue, for the issue of June 19th, so asks its numerous readers to bear his mind.

Mr. Frank E. Harris told all who were at our church service on May 18th, how God would compute our days of learning of His law at the seat of reckoning, and admonished all to be on the right side at the call of the Great Trumpet. He said our learning of His love at our Sunday School and Bible classes was paramount to greater achievement and knowledge.

Mr. Edward Mosher, the beloved father of our friend, Mr. James Mosher, of Hamilton, passed beyond on Sunday morning, May 18th, at the Independent Order of Oddfellows Home in this city, where he had been for many years. He was in his ninety-sixth year, and the remains were conveyed to his old home city of Hamilton for burial. Friend James and other relatives have our sincere sympathy.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Grooms on Barrie Avenue, was under lock and key over the week-end of May 17th, all because the whole family was away in Hamilton. They went out Saturday afternoon to take in the social there that evening, and Mr. Grooms conducted the services there on Sunday.

Your reporter, on making inquiries at the home of Mr. Charles Rolls, after his recent accident, found that Mr. Rolls received a more serious accident than was generally surmised. At any rate, it was a very close call, with the entire blame placed on the reckless motorist, who should have stopped, when the street car was slowing down. We are glad Mr. Rolls is making satisfactory progress.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Watt took a trip out to Long Branch, on May 17th, to see the Bartley family, whom they found doing well since their removal from the Western hospital.

Miss Monica Breen, of Hamilton, we hear, was in this city, on May 18th, to see a friend, who was lately severely injured on one of the lake boats.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whealy and son, Herbert, motored down to rFankford for Victoria Day, to visit Mrs. Whealy's old home folks, returning Sunday evening.

Mr. Charles A. Elliott, who was billed to speak at Bewdley, on May 25th, was accompanied by Mr. J. R. Byrne and son, Fraser, in the latter's car. Perhaps an account of the meeting will appear in your paper later.

Mrs. Thomas Brigham and little son, of Ottawa, are visiting relatives and friends here, while Mr. Brigham is building their summer cottage at Aylmer, Que.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Shepherd and the former's two sisters went up to Washaga Beach for the Victoria Day recess, getting their summer cottage in readiness for summer occupation.

On May 17th, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Forrester and children accompanied by Miss Alma Brown, motored up to Miss Brown's parental home in Markdale, and next day went on to Owen Sound, taking along Alma's brother, Thomas Herbert Brown, as they passed through Chatsworth, they picked up Victor Reading. On arriving in Owen Sound, Mr. Forrester took charge of the service there, then all returned home the same evening. Alma Brown went up to Markdale again the following week-end to attend the wedding of her youngest sister on May 24th. An account of the happy event appears in these columns.

Down on the Kingston Road, several miles east of this city, on a well kept tract of land, known as the Aisla Farm live some good friends of Miss Annabel Thomson, so on May 24th, Annabel and a number of her friends were invited out there by the host and hostess, and a very enjoyable day was spent in a very social way on this beautiful homestead.

At break of dawn on May 24th, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Grooms and family made off in their car for Napanee to enjoy that week-end with Harry's parents, stopping over at Belleville on the way down to have a look over at our old school. Mr. William Hazlitt accompanied them as far as Belleville, to visit his son at our Alma Mater. On the way home the party called on relatives at Hampton, Bgwmerville and Oshawa.

The O. A. D. sports fund social that was originally arranged to be held on May 31st, and advertised in your last issue, had to be cancelled, on account of lack of time to get up a deserving programme. Holding to many socials at such close intervals is like putting salt in your buoyant coffee.

On the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Middleton, of Horning Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert R. Roberts went up to their beautifully kept farm on May 23d, and returned home on the 26th, having enjoyed a very pleasant and restful holiday far upon the Caledon Hills, where the lofty pines sigh and sigh in the breezes.

Upwards of thirty of our friends journeyed up to Hamilton, on May 17th, and took part in the jolly big social, returning home next day. Frank Pierce, Charles McLaughlin, Dorothy Baillie, Erna Sole, Mrs. H. Whealy and Carrie Buchan, were included in the happy bunch.

After over a week's lay off, due to the plant undergoing repairs, Miss Helen A. Middleton, who had been spending the interim at her parental home in Horning Mills, returning to this city on the morning train of May 27th, and left the same evening to resume her duties at Niagara Falls, Ont.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

The Hamilton Branch of the Ontario Association of the Deaf held a very pleasant social gathering on Saturday, May 17th, 1930, in the Sons of England Hall. The vice-president, Norman L. Gladwin, of this city, was the first speaker of the evening, and he opened the social with a few pleasant and appropriate words of greeting and spoke of the work of the committee and the aim of the organization. He then invited Mr. H. E. Grooms, of Toronto, President of the Association, to the platform. Mr. Grooms greeted the members and visiting friends present from Toronto, Brantford, London, St. Thomas, Milton, Galt, St. Catharines and other places. He spoke of the next convention of the association, which will be held in Belleville June 1931, and his plans, after which the games of the evening began. Tables were placed for euchre and other games, the fun of the evening lasting till about half past ten, when the prize drawings took place. The first prize, a lovely quilt made by the Hamilton committee of deaf ladies, was won by Mr. E. Purdon, of Hamilton. Second prize, donated by Mrs. C. T. Gladwin, of this city, was won by Mrs. Reta Smith, of Hamilton. Third prize, donated by Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor, was won by Mrs. Jontie Henderson, of Sarnia. Fourth prize, donated by the Culley Electric was won by Mrs. Wm. Bell, of Hamilton. Fifth prize, donated by Mr. F. C. Morden was won by Mrs. H. Bayliss, of Hamilton. Sixth prize, donated by Mrs. Howard Breen, was won by Mr. James Burrows. Seventh prize, donated by Wm. Batstone, was won by W. G. Denton, of this city. The handsome club bag, donated by the Hamilton Leather Goods Co., was secured by Mr. Fred Terrell, of Toronto. The lucky entrance number prize, donated by Mrs. Howard Breen, went to Mrs. Howard Lloyd, of Brantford. The other donations, received from Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harris, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bayliss, A. G. Bain, Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson, Crearers, McBrides, Stuarts, Tamblins, Browns, Hardware Stores, also those from Mr. J. T. Shilton and Mrs. E. Johnston, were used as prizes for games, and were very much appreciated. Those who won such lovely prizes were: for euchre, first prize, Miss Wall, of Toronto, and booby prize, Mrs. Salmon, of Hamilton. Gentlemen: first, Mr. A. Quick; booby prize, Mr. Harry Dennis, of Hamilton. Ball throwing: Ladies prize, Mrs. Grooms. Gents—Mr. Charles Robinson, of Toronto.

Egg and Spoon Race—Lady's prize, Miss Bluestein, of Hamilton.

Gents.—J. Shoemith, of this city. Pitch 'Em—First, Raymond Gladwin, city; second, Douglas Peel, of Winona.

Sucker Game—Children's prize, won by Miss Doris Grooms, of Toronto. Adults' prize—Mr. Fred Terrell, of Toronto.

Hook and Ring Game: Winner of largest number, Mr. Roy Coles, of Galt. The fast swinging pendulum of the clock would not permit of more games, so after the distribution of the prizes all were seated and the donation of ten dozen cups cakes from Mammy's bakery Hamilton, and ice-cream from Silverwood's Dairy served as very dainty refreshments. The sincere thanks of Mr. Gladwin, and the local committee is extended to all who helped so kindly toward making the evening a great success. Drawing tickets were sold for some before the date of the social and the admission was twenty-five cents, and the committee is pleased to announce that the social financially was a great success—the sum of seventy-two dollars being collected that night. Mr. H. J. Lloyd, past president of the association, spoke appreciatively of the splendid work done by Mr. Gladwin and the ladies committee, in arranging for the entertainment and asked for a vote of thanks, which was very heartily accorded.

There were about 116 present, plus the children and, besides the large Toronto delegation, they included Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Fishbein, of London; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lloyd and Joshua Lloyd, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baumgart, of Brantford. Mr. Geo. Bell, Harry Gwater and George Munroe, of St. Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Patterson and Roy Coles, of Galt; Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thomas, of Oakville; Miss Clara Hartley, of Milton; Mr. Arthur Ellis, of St. Catharines and others.

The morning after, about four carloads left on a sight-seeing trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo.

Mr. Robert H. Randall, of Paris, was also in our midst and took in the Sunday service, held here by Mr. H. E. Grooms, of Toronto, whose subject was on "The Greatest," and was very effective. A large number of visiting friends attended this service.

There was a picnic of the deaf here at the park on the mountain on Victoria Day, and those who turned up report, having had a very pleasant time.

The Centenary Church of Hamilton S. S. picnic will be held at Soper Park in Galt, on the 7th of June, in the afternoon. Those living nearby are invited to join the Hamilton deaf who will take in this picnic.

A neat little sum was made by the sale of candy at our social, which was made by Miss Dorothy Adam, and sold by her and her little band of helpers, Miss Doris Grooms, Miss Aurette Gladwin, John Grooms, Ray and Harold Gladwin and Lloyd Brown.

The Hamilton deaf will hold their class picnic early in July. The date and place will be announced later. Watch for it. Come!

WATERLOO WEEK BITS

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Black and Mrs. T. S. Williams accompanied Mr. George Bassler, of Hesson, in his car to Owen Sound on May 17th, and attended the Forrester meeting next day.

Mrs. Charles Golds, Sr., was very kindly remembered, by all her children who are away from home, with Mother's Day greetings. Even baby Featherstone of Niagara Falls filled his letter with kisses for Grandma Golds.

Mrs. John A. Moynihan called to see Miss Kate Fenner on May 18th, while on her way to see the Martins. Miss Fenner is in very good health just now.

Mr. Allan Nahrgang is a newly listed subscriber to the JOURNAL, and we hope that others will step forward and follow his example.

Little Margaret, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Absalom Martin, recently celebrated her fifth birthday, and was well remembered by her relatives and friends.

Owing to illness among some of our deaf locally, the Terrell mission meeting on May 18th was quite small in attendance, although Mr. Terrell gave a very fine sermon.

We regret to report, at time of writing, the serious illness of Mr. John Forsythe, of Elmira, who is in St. Mary's Hospital in Kitchener. On Sunday evening, May 18th, nearly all the leaf men of the twin cities of Kitchener and Waterloo called at the hospital to see him.

ST. THOMAS SORTINGS

Miss Reta Windrim journeyed up to London, on May 17th, to see her sisters.

Mr. George Munroe took a trip to Woodstock, on business on May 12th, and returned home the same day.

Mr. George Bell took Harry Gwater and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gwater on a trip to Chatham lately, and called on their several deaf friends there, who appear to be doing well in the "Maple City."

W. J. and Mrs. Smalldon with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paul and children motored down to Ingersoll on Mother's Day, to decorate the grave of Mrs. Paul's mother, then called on Mr. Merton McMurray, who is doing well on his fifty-acre farm.

George Bell, Fred Gwater and Geo. Munroe went down to Hamilton on the 17th, in Mr. Bell's car, and took in the social, which was a grand affair. They returned early the next morning, well satisfied with their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smalldon spent the Victoria Day recess with their children and other relatives in Detroit and other points west.

GENERAL GLEANINGS

A very interesting ceremony took place at the Manse, in Markdale, on May 24th, when the Rev. Mr. Coutts united in marriage Miss Ladella Brown to Mr. Albert Badgerow, of Saugeen Junction. They were unattended and left immediately for their new home in Saugeen Junction, where our best wishes follow for a long happy life. The bride is the youngest sister of Miss Alma Brown, of Toronto, and of T. Herbert Brown, of Markdale. The day was also the twenty-seventh anniversary of the wedding of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown. Long may this venerable couple prosper and troth the avenue of love and wedded harmony.

Miss Dianah Weiler, of Mildmay, was recently enjoying a pleasant visit with friends in Clifford. Dianah does not see the deaf very often, so such a visit is greatly enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Lobsinger and a friend, of Detroit, motored down to Riverside on May 15th, to visit Mr. and Mrs. Leon Charbonneau, and see their dear little baby. As well as to notify the Charbonneaus of the charity social and keno games that was held in Detroit on May 24th. The visitors then left to call on friends in Ehnstead and other parts hard by.

Mr. H. B. Fetterley, M.A., Public School Inspector for the County of Dundas in Eastern Ontario, has been gazetted as the new superintendent of our Alma Mater at Belleville in succession to the late Dr. C. B. Coughlin, who passed away very suddenly a year ago. Prof. W. J. Campbell had been the acting superintendent in the interim. Mr. Fetterley assumes his new duties on July 1st next, and we hope he will prove a capable man.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Thomas, who have been visiting relatives and friends down in Balmly Alabama during the past winter, have returned to their home in Oakville, looking fine and robust. They attended the big social in Hamilton on May 17th.

We understand that Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bell, late of Moose Jaw, Sask., have sold out their western home, and moved to Ontario, where they have ventured into the poultry business near Campbellville.

Some time ago, Miss Mary Nahrgang, the eldest and refined daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Nahrgang, of Haysville, went to Buffalo, N. Y., where she obtained a position in a dining hall, and later on a well dressed stranger dropped in for a meal. Neither knew each other, but the stranger soon caught a fancy for the charming young maiden, and in a very short time a friendship between the two sprang up with Sir Daniel pulgating the way. In a very short time, they came to the end of Lover's Avenue, and on December 13th last, joined hands for life, but the news was not generally known until recently, hence this announcement. The lucky individual was Mr. Hyman Kettoff, of Buffalo, who is now working on one of the Lake-Erie steamers, while just now Mrs. Kettoff is staying with her parents in Haysville. When navigation closes on the great lakes in the fall, Mr. and Mrs. Kettoff will go and live in New York City, where the former will go into business. Mrs. Kettoff, formerly lived in Toronto, is well known and liked by the deaf, with whom she can converse fluently, though not deaf herself.

Out in Fraserburg, in the famous Highlands of Ontario, live two of our old friends and former graduates of the Belleville school, in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander Dickson (nee Miss Mabel Elliott, of Fenelon Falls.) They were married on September 5th, 1906, and have lived in their present locality ever since.

They are blessed with five children, Herbert at home, Gertrude and Laura, now in Toronto, and Amy and Doris also at home. Mr. Dickson is of the sturdy Highland stock and owns three hundred acres, one acre of which comprises the school grounds hard by. Strange to say, you can, from their home throw a stone into four separate townships—namely, Oakley township in which they live, McLean township to their right, Draper township to the left and McCauley township in front. The Dicksons are well-known and well-liked by all who know them.

CADWALLADER WASHBURN

A remarkable collection of portrait studies in drypoint by Cadwallader Washburn is now on view at Gordon Dunthorn's. This collection consists of 15 prints made recently in North Africa and not previously exhibited in this country. They are superb works, rendered with skill of a real master, one who perfectly commands his medium and has a discerning eye. Each is a type. For instance, "A Soudanese Chief," "Horse Trader," "Dock Hand," "A Fakir," "Bazar Merchant," "Money Lender," "Tunisian Jew," "A Gentleman." Each, too, is a real personality which the etcher has interpreted for all time. In every instance Mr. Washburn has chosen to portray his subjects with marked contrasts of light and shade, using chiaroscuro with the utmost skill, even to perfection.

When Mr. Washburn held a one-man exhibition in Paris a couple of years ago, Malcolm C. Salaman, one of the leading British authorities on prints, referred to him as "a remarkably intuitive etcher of heads, masterly," and outstanding for "special excellence in ethnographical and individual character." "Washburn," he continued, "has attained to such mastery with his dry point it is difficult to say what he will do. He is certain not to stop still. He may set forth on further travel, seeking new adventure, but wherever it leads the goal must be beautiful."

Homely as are the subjects which Mr. Washburn has chosen to interpret in the present instance, there is in every one of his works that dominant element of beauty, reflecting deep significance of spirit and the eternal.

Cadwallader Washburn come of a distinguished family. His father was a builder of railroads and a United States Senator; his uncle a governor and pioneer in Western enterprise. He graduated from Gallaudet College in 1886, then went to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he took up architecture. But somehow his interest in beauty sidetracked him and instead of practicing as an architect he entered the Art Students' League of New York as a student. For a time he worked under Chase. Then he went abroad, traveled and studied. At the time of the Russo-Japanese War he sent to Manchuria as war correspondent for the Chicago Daily News. In 1908 he visited Mexico. He has seldom been long in any one place since and has included in his travels Siam, the South Sea Islands and many other out-of-the-way places. Wherever he goes, his etching needle goes with him, and each new set of etchings that come back as a result is a little finer, a little more masterly, than those that have preceded them—a splendid record.

Florida Flashes

Mr. and Mrs. Utten Read, of St. Petersburg, will spend the summer months in Gainesville, where Mr. Read will attend a teachers' institute at the University of Florida, with a view to becoming affiliated with a high school in that State when the fall term opens. Mr. Read was a substitute teacher at the Clearwater school recently, and it is understood that he has a State certificate credited to him and all tests were passed successfully with the exception of science. For that reason he will study this special course at Gainesville this summer. His many friends are hoping that he will receive a regular appointment, no matter where he may be located.

Mrs. Laurence Randall, of West Philadelphia, Pa., has taken advantage of excursion rates and is now spending the summer in Dayton, Ohio, with her relatives. Owing to better opportunities that he was offered, Mr. Randall decided to "make hay while the sun shines" by moving from Winter Park to Philadelphia, where he has secured a lucrative situation as linotype operator.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Cory, Jr., are expecting to leave St. Petersburg some time this summer for New York and Michigan resorts. During the past few weeks their residence and premises have been turned over to remodelers and landscape artists.

Wonder if Mrs. Deavers, of Dayton, Ohio, has discovered that it is much cheaper to spend the summer or winter in Florida than to sell out her property, make such a long and tedious journey across the continent to California, and find her cherished dreams blasted. The reason why she acquired the anti-Florida animus has not been divulged, but it is suspected that her stay in Florida was cut abruptly when an unusually steady downpour set in. Curiously enough, it stopped after she returned home bag and baggage. Come again, friend. We have 365 days of sunshine, occasionally sandwiched in between showers.

If Roy Conkling delves in the study of summer resort literature, he will find that Florida offers the best and most tempting allurements, unequalled anywhere in the country, so far as fresh and salt water fishing is concerned. Roy should come to Florida, see and be convinced that there are over one thousand varieties of fish to choose from.

Miss Vina Smith, the only deaf woman in the world who ever entered the deaconess work, left St. Cloud on May 16th for the Agard Deaconess Rest Home at Lake Bluff, Ill., on her annual summer vacation. During the winter months that she spent in St. Cloud, her services had been of inestimable value to the Florida Mission for the Deaf in and out of town.

Miss Smith was for many years a worker in the jurisdiction of the Chicago Methodist district, and when her health was impaired, she retired from her labors to seek rest at the above-mentioned home. And having regained her health, she obtained less strenuous employment as teacher in the State school for the deaf, and until several years ago, when a physical breakdown compelled her to give up her profession. She was in continuous service, having taught in South Dakota, Wisconsin, Louisiana, Indiana and Arkansas. Before departing for Illinois, she made it known that she would return to St. Cloud in November, traveling over night from a cold clime to a warm one.

The passing of J. H. Blickensderfer, better known to the Ohio Chronicle readers as Quenchapua, is sad to comprehend. He had been sick on and off for many years. It seems he sensed the premonition that he was actually starting down the western slope of life, so when the reunion was held at Columbus he decided to attend it for the last time. While they were mighty glad to meet the grand old man of journalism, his friends stood aghast at his quick transition physically. The Chronicle suffers the loss of a good news gatherer, and the question now arises, who is the oldest living correspondent in point of service?

We know of no one, save J. B. Benedict, of Akron. Long may the king reign!

Miss Martha Tison will be married June 7th to Emmett Kelly, of Jacksonville. The wedding will take place at the bride's home at Gainesville, and the happy couple will make their future home in Jacksonville. They are very popular people, well known throughout the state.

Rev. A. Q. Wilson and Rev. J. W. Michaels, deaf Baptist missionaries in the Southern States, who frequently conduct services in Florida, attended the business sessions of the quadrennial conference of the Baptist Church in New Orleans. Mr. Wilson is stationed at Atlanta, while Mr. Michaels holds a pastorate at Fort Worth, Texas.

SYRACUSE, N. Y.

Mr. H. W. Whitmore, of Laporte, Indiana., stopped over Sunday, May 18th, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Root, of Syracuse. From here he went to Boston, Washington, D. C., New York City, Philadelphia and Atlantic City. He will then go to Miami and Key West, Florida, then on to New Orleans and California. He expects to return home about July 4th. Upon his return, he will go to Chicago and give a lecture before members of the Pas-a-Pas club. He has many interesting incidents to relate of his travels.

The Ladies Guild of Syracuse had an ice-cream social at Trinity Parish House on May 24th. Mesdames. Sears, Holmann and Ayling had charge of the affair, which is the last social for the season. Later on a picnic will be arranged, date to be announced later.

The Frat banquet, scheduled for May 30th, has been cancelled, owing to unavoidable circumstance, due to the business depression of the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conley, of suburban Collamer, recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of Cortland, and also at Erieville, where they met Mr. George Connor. They went to Phelps, N. Y., on May 23d, to visit Mrs. Conley's mother, who is in poor health.

Mrs. Herbert C. Merrill is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Albert Hemstreet, in Rochester. Mrs. Merrill recently returned from a month's visit in Washington, D. C., with her eldest daughter, Mrs. Thelma Stewart.

Rev. Robert Root, of Buffalo, spent several days with his parents last week, and also attended a church conference of the Methodist denomination.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sears had as their guest recently, Mr. and Mrs. George Root, on a motor trip to Skaneateles Lake, where they witnessed a race of outboard motor boats of several college teams. A young man from Syracuse won the race.

Mrs. Roderick Brown, of North Syracuse, was most pleasantly surprised on May 16th, in honor of her natal day, at the home of Mr. Carl Avling, in Syracuse. Some fifty deaf were present and showered her with useful and appropriate gifts.

On April 20, Easter Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Smith, of Buffalo, motored to Syracuse to visit Mr. and Mrs. Allan Pabst. During the day, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Smith complained of illness and a physician was called, who after a careful diagnosis, insisted on the little fellow being taken to a hospital, where it was found he was suffering from an attack of spinal meningitis. He was confined to the hospital for three or four weeks, and his mother remained near him night and day. The child finally recovered sufficiently to be taken to his home in Buffalo. It is hoped he will eventually make a complete recovery.

On May 25th Mr. and Mrs. John Sears, Mr. and Mrs. George Root, and Miss Rovilla Van Slyke, of Syracuse, motored to Erieville, N. Y., and visited with Mr. George Connor, who is living on a farm near Erieville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strahl, of Syracuse, motored to Georgetown, N. Y., to spend the day with relatives on May 25th.

It is pretty well known that the great musical composer, Beethoven, was in the latter part of his life totally deaf—at least so deaf that he could not hear the delightful, the soul-stirring music that he composed.

Recently the silver screen of the movies carried a film of his life, from the almost penurious years of his young manhood to the waning days of his existence.

The screen depicted his continuous efforts to hear his own music during the last twenty years of his life, and the heart-rending disappointment, the anguish of soul, that he endured. At one time he is made to exclaim, "Oh if I could only hear, I would embrace the world." For over twenty years, he struggled and lamented. And during these twenty years of blanketing deafness, his greatest and best musical compositions were written—thrilling works that have enraptured the entire world for over a century and will continue to do so for all time to come even though Beethoven is but—

"A handful of gray ashes, long, long ago at rest; Still is the wondrous music the nightingales awake; For death he taketh all away, but this he cannot take."

No one who has experienced hearing ever forgets the joys of sound. The deaf are taught to speak, and to retain speech, but the sound of the words is absent. The mechanical facility of vocal utterance to them does not even have the sound of a whisper—only there a vibratory feeling in the throat or chest to suggest to them that the tone of a voice has been produced but of what quality or pitch they can not tell. Deafness is a great handicap in social life, but to see the lips of others move in vivacious conversation and realize the utter futility of hearing "the sweet music of speech," exasperates the very soul.

No one is able to estimate the number of deaf-mutes that will attend the Convention of the National Association of the Deaf at Buffalo, N. Y., in the first week of August, but it surely will be very large. Therefore it is wise to make hotel reservations at once.

From Vizetelly Himself

I remember the day when Frank H. Vizetelly, editor-in-chief of "The Standard Dictionary," was an unapproachable intellectual to me. (He still is, for that matter.) But at the plant of C. J. O'Brien, Inc., there is a proofreader who was one of the assistant editors of "The Standard Dictionary" for several years, and who, what's more, has a copy of the 1922 edition in which, in Vizetelly's own hand, there is inscribed the following:—

To SAMUEL KOHN

In grateful appreciation of many valued suggestions adopted in this work as it passed through its various stages in the printing and electrotyping of the text. With the sincere thanks of the publishers, Funk & Wagnalls Co., Frank H. Vizetelly, Litt.D., LL.D.

All of which means that Mr. Kohn, who "barnstormed" to California some time ago as a linotype operator and who is a college man himself, now has the only dictionary I've ever wanted. —New York Printing News.

OMAHA

The Fontenelle Literary Society held its May meeting at the City Hall, Saturday night, May 17th. Very little business convened, which shows that the by-laws of this society were planned by its originators. Robert E. Dobson, who gave Current Events, compared Lindbergh's wonderful flight across the continent with his own ability to make words fly. Picking up his words like gathering a bunch of violets. "Humor" was discussed by Riley E. Anthony, not the original Mark Anthony. He claimed that there was an old nag that liked a "chaw" o' terbaccer, but didn't mention anything about the nag's stall having a cupid's bow. We suspect some cud-chewing bovine will perk up her ears and look sarcastic. The "Judge Parker Fuss," by Mrs. Ota C. Blankenship, was evidence that her experience as a teacher must have shown her that little boys and big boys both have fusses allee samee. What the fuss is all about the cops will want to know. And yet the Supreme Judge's chair is empty. Selah! On account of Mrs. John Halter's absence, the chairman, Mrs. Emma Seely, took her place with the subject, "Bananas" and, they say the party surely was the dessert, and everyone felt satisfied. They learned that bananas don't grow in Annapolis nor on walnut trees, and that the skins aren't good to eat, but the cause of many a "faw down and go boom." Also that an over-indulgence in banana oil is followed by castor oil.

PHILADELPHIA

News items for this column should be sent to James Reider, 1538 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Rev. and Mrs. Warren M. Smaltz spent Memorial Day at the home of the latter's sister in Rehoboth Beach, Del. This was made possible by the fact that All Souls' Church had no social or other function for the day, for the first time in many years. The reverend gentleman is an ardent fisherman, and so seized the opportunity joyfully to go fishing. Despite the fact that it rained in torrents down in South Delaware, he and Mr. Herbert C. Jump of Milford, Del., went out on Delaware Bay in a motor boat in the storm. In addition to catching sea sickness, rheumatism, sunburn, and other "impediments," they caught 26 sea trout and other fish. Angling, say these gentlemen, is great sport. We wonder.

On Easter Sunday, a beautiful part of the service at All Souls' Church for the Deaf was the blessing by the pastor of two service books as memorials of the late William L. Salter. One is an altar prayer book and the other a hymnal, both Oxford editions and newly revised. The front covers contain the following gold inscriptions:—

To the Glory of God and Loving Memory of William L. Salter, Vestryman. Obit February 15, 1930. From his wife, Gertrude P. Salter.

Our heartfelt sympathy is tendered to Mrs. Harry G. Gunkel on the loss of her only hearing sister, Naomi G. Hamilton, on May 28th. Death was caused by a stroke which first attacked her while riding on a trolley-car.

All Souls' last strawberry festival, though not a huge success, was spared from complete failure. There was a heavy thundershower in the evening which affected the attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. A. Reider attended the meeting of the Alumni Association of the New Jersey School for the Deaf, in Trenton, on Memorial Day. By request, Mr. Reider delivered an eulogy of John P. Walker, M.A. They returned home in the evening. Mr. Arthur Fowler and family also attended the meeting, and later visited the school for the deaf. The latter made the trip to Trenton and return by automobile.

Mrs. E. J. Dantzer returned to Philadelphia from Evansville, Ind., on Saturday, May 24th. She is having her cottage made ready and expects to occupy it soon and stay all summer.

Miss Mamie I. Hess spent half of last week, visiting in Washington, D. C., and reports a most enjoyable time.

Mr. James H. Richards has been appointed an additional Lay Reader at All Soul's Church for the Deaf. A largely attended dance was given in Gilpin Hall, on the grounds of the Mt. Airy School, for the benefit of the House for Aged and Infirm Deaf on Saturday evening, May 31st. It was a pleasing success and drew a number of deaf from out of town.

Mrs. Elizabeth E. Riggs, of Elizabeth, N. J., has been a visitor here for about two days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Paul.

Mr. Joseph S. Rodgers left for Poughkeepsie, N. Y., on Thursday, May 29th, to join his wife who was visiting her sister. On the following Saturday the sister brought them back to Philadelphia in her automobile, and on Monday, June 2d, returned home alone. Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers enjoyed the trip very much.

GALLAUDET COLLEGE

Delmar Cosgrove, '31, sharp-shooter on the casaba quintet, reigns supreme on the Gallaudet tennis court for the fourth consecutive year. Last Sunday, in the final round, before a large crowd of Kendall Greeners, he nosed out Hugh Lee Stack, Jr., P. C., in straight sets 6-0; 6-1, and 6-3.

In the semi-final round, Stack, a Prep, was extended in defeating Greenberg, 3-6; 8-6, and 6-1. Only inexperience prevented Stack from giving the veteran Cosgrove a stiffer battle. In the first set he was nervous and high-strung before the large crowd. In the last set, his usual self slowly came to the front, and no doubt, if it had only been the beginning, he would have made a better showing.

As it is, Stack, the Kansas boy, will show his mettle again next year, and readers are advised that here is a comer who will be heard from in the future. Only Cosgrove's experience and timely shots kept the burly Kansan on the short end of the score. Some boys who will bear watching include Stack, P. C.; Morill and Kruger, '33.

Apparently Gallaudet has some promising material for a good net squad. With someone to coach the boys in the finer points of the game, it is certain that they would make a creditable showing against other college squads in the District. While tennis at Gallaudet remains, as has been the case, an inter-class sport for the campus championship, there is a tendency for only the better players to feel mutually interested in the game.

Had Gallaudet participated in the District of Columbia intercollegiate tennis schedule, it is more than a guess that they would not have been at the bottom of the pile, while Cosgrove would have had his opportunity to try for the District championship.

The girls' tennis tournament, which has been going on for about a month, has come to a close. To begin with, there were between ten and eighteen girls, but by a process of elimination, the semi-finals showed:

Martino, '32, vs. Koehn, '33. Ingraham, '33, vs. Bridger, '32. Watson, '32, vs. Bronson, '32.

Of these, Miss Koehn won over Miss Martino by a score of 6-3, 8-6, 6-4. Miss Bridger defeated Miss Ingraham, 6-3; 6-0; and Miss Bronson won over Miss Watson, 6-0; 6-0. Miss Bridger then met Miss Koehn, defeating her, 6-3; 6-0. The finals came off Thursday afternoon, May 30. Miss Ruth Remsburg was scorekeeper. Miss Bridger was, for the second time, victorious over Miss Bronson by the score of 6-4; 8-6.

GOLF

Erroneously, last week, Leonard Lau, '30, was included in the list of finalists for the golf championship instead of Harold Larsen, '33.

Konrad Hokanson, '31, shot one of the lowest scores ever made on the Kendall Green course, to win the final round from the combined efforts of Harold Larsen, '33, and Andrew Hnatow, '32.

Hokanson made the round of fifty-four holes in 221. Larsen was second with 237, and Hnatow last with 251. On the general assumption of an average, Hokanson made the best mark in the memory of the oldest golfer on Kendall Green. His mark of 221 for three rounds of eighteen holes each, will go down in the books as a record for the campus course.

Next year, if no new Preparatory lads take the lead, students now in Gallaudet who will bear watching are Crockett, Grabill, and Blanchard, Preps; Williams and Mossell, Freshmen; and probably a new leader for the Juniors in the person of Cosgrove, if he plays much this summer.

NEW YORK

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.

A few words of information in a letter or postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

GREATER NEW YORK, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF THE DEAF

The Greater New York, National Association of the Deaf held a meeting in the Union League Hall, 143 West 125th Street, on Wednesday evening, May 28th, 1930.

Despite the inclement weather, there was a fairly good attendance.

Mr. John N. Funk, the President of the Branch, who presided, after saying that he could blame the weather for the slim attendance, introduced Mr. Walsh, a representative of the Lehigh Valley Railroad. Mr. Edward P. Clarke, though a hearing man, who is a member of the Association, kindly interpreted for Mr. Walsh.

The route from the Pennsylvania Station, 33d Street New York to Buffalo was explained clearly. Afterwards Mr. Walsh answered many questions put to him by the members.

The only other business transacted at this meeting was the voting of fifty dollars to the Edward Minor Gallaudet Memorial Fund.

And then the election of new officers to serve for two years were elected.

To save time President Funk acted as inspector. Save for the Board of Directors, all the officers were drafted and elected by an unanimous vote. They are—

President, Dr. Edwin W. Nies; Vice-President, Emanuel Souweine; Secretary, Marcus L. Kenner; Treasurer, Samuel Frankenstein; Board of Directors, Dr. Thomas F. Fox, John N. Funk, and Jack Ebin.

The various standing committees were not appointed at this meeting, but will be at the next meeting in the Fall.

It is the purpose to again make the Branch one of the Great Pillars of the National Association, and judging from what the elected officers stated when called upon, they were all of the same opinion.

All the Deaf of Greater New York are invited to join, in order to enable the Branch to achieve its purpose—to accomplish untold good to all the deaf of our city. "United we succeed, divided we fall."

In due time circulars will be printed and all the deaf in Greater New York asked to join the Association.

In the meantime all who can, should try and attend the next convention of the National Association, in Buffalo, N. Y., August 4th to 9th, 1930.

It will be the sixteenth convention, but the fifth year, hence it can be rightly called the Golden Anniversary of the Association.

Those desiring to attend can address Marcus L. Kenner, 114 West 27th Street, N. Y., or Jack M. Ebin, 2089 Vyse Avenue, Bronx, N. Y., who will be glad to furnish all information desired concerning the route to Buffalo, hotel accommodations, etc.

BUS RIDE TO THE GALLAUDET HOME

The Bus Excursion to the Gallaudet Home at Wappinger's Falls, N. Y., on Friday, May 30th, (Memorial Day) was enjoyed by fully one hundred and twenty-six deaf men and women from New York City.

There were also fourteen automobiles parked in the rear of the Home, which had brought deaf people from various cities—such as Albany, Schenectady, Goshen, Port Jervis, Walden, Newburgh, as well as places in Connecticut and Long Island.

At the very least there were present two hundred people to honor the birthday (June 3d) of the founder of the Home, Rev. Dr. Thomas Gallaudet. The bus riders found the roads in splendid condition for the entire trip. There were no detours over bumpy highways, but wide roadways, velvety smooth, that made motoring a delight. The buses also were the Blue Coach de luxe, with individual seats upholstered in leather, manned by uniformed drivers who were as courteous as they were skillful.

On reaching the Home, luncheons were quickly spread on the spacious lawns, beneath shade trees, and on benches of the expansive piazza. The matron of the Home, Miss Martin, had provided coffee, ice-cream, etc., which sold for a nominal sum, and was eagerly purchased.

After lunch, many inspected and admired the Home interiors, and were both astonished and pleased at the homelike furnishings of each inmate's room, the parlors, sitting room, dining room, etc., so cleanly and comfortable.

Many voiced their sorrow at the death of Miss Virginia B. Gallaudet, who was so active in behalf of the Home which her father founded.

The buses and autos left the Home at 5:30 and were in New York City by nine o'clock.

The excursion was made under the auspices of the Men's Club of St. Ann's, and was managed with consummate skill by the chairman, Mr. Edward C. Elsworth, assisted by Arne Olsen, Robert Kerstetter, and W. W. Thomas.

The large number of excursionists conducted themselves splendidly during their stay of several hours at the Home, and that the time was enjoyable spent in various ways and in pleasant chats with old-time schoolmates and other acquaintances, there can be no question.

All were impressed with the far-seeing philanthropy of Thomas Gallaudet, who rescued the aged and infirm deaf-mutes, to whose old age misfortune had been added as an impost to a handicapped existence.

On Saturday evening, May 31st, the Literary Committee of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League entertained almost three hundred members and guests to a silent movie show.

The first thing in the program was a rendition in signs by Mrs. Max Lubin, "I have a Rendezvous With Death."

Next was a contest of stories and jokes about the World War. Mr. Joe Sturtz won first prize; Miss A. Hamberger, second prize; and Moses Schnapp, third prize.

Charles Chaplin in "The Immigrant," was next shown, and followed by the film taken by the United States Government during the great conflict in France. Few had ever seen this. It gave a true picture of the great struggle of the War.

A surprise was sprung on the audience. On the screen true to life appeared Mr. Max Lubin, who described in clear signs the advantage of the silent picture as an entertainment for the deaf, and the advisability of owning an outfit by the League. He then introduced his better half, and Mrs. Lubin in turn introduced her two children. In due time other members will be filmed and shown at the Union League Hall.

Edward P. Clarke, of Sunnyside Gardens, New York City, has returned from a visit to his old home in Hartford, where he was invited to attend the annual dinner of the Connecticut Chapter of the Gallaudet College Alumni Association as the guest of honor. He was instrumental in founding this active Chapter and has missed but one of these annual gatherings since the Chapter was organized.

Professor Henry A. Perkins, President of the Board of Directors of the American School for the Deaf, related interesting incidents of his travels in the Orient in his sabbatical year, Mr. Clarke interpreting. It was announced by Mr. Clarke as chairman of the E. M. Gallaudet Fund for New England, that in June, Connecticut would be the first of the States to double its quota. The original quota was $596 and next month Connecticut's total will exceed $1200.

Mrs. J. Black's mother died suddenly on May 22d, at her home in Newark, N. J. She was apparently exceptionally well, but at six o'clock she had a "stroke" and passed away at seven. She was eighty-three years old. Miss Kate Ehrlich had visited them the previous Sunday and the old lady had talked cheerfully in a laughing mood, never expecting that a few days later she would be at the mother's funeral. Mrs. Black is saddened over her loss of husband, father, and mother, within the past few years.

The twentieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lefi occurred on Saturday, May 31st, and their friends thought it right and proper to show their esteem for the couple, and in the evening to the number of twenty-four they trooped in on them. The result was a happy celebration. A fine repast was served and a merry time was had.

Several who could not attend sent telegrams of congratulation.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Knoblock, of St. Louis, Mo., on May 15, 1930, at the Mullaphy Hospital. The baby weighed three-and-a-half pounds at birth. Both were Fanwood graduates of a few years ago. Mrs. Knoblock will be remembered as Fannie Mills.

Miss Mary Martin Eichele will bid farewell to dear New York, where she has lived always. The reason is because her married sister moved to California and has been urging her to join her there. She expects to leave for the Pacific Slope by boat in the latter part of this month.

At the Bedford Branch of the Y. M. C. A. they give silent motion pictures every Saturday evening, in the auditorium. Both men and women are invited. The admission price is twenty-five cents for adults and twenty cents for children. The building is located at 1115-1125 Bedford Avenue.

Mr. Merten S. Moses, his nephew, Mr. E. Nickerman, his wife and baby, and his niece, Geddel, also his sister, Mrs. M. W. Loew autored to Easton, Pa., to decorate the graves of their family plot, and then returned home, a distance of 200 miles both ways.

Benjamin Shafrenak and his Deaf-Mutes' Union League baseball team will journey to Westchester, N. Y., on June 8th, and engage in a ball game with the St. Joseph's Institute for Deaf-Mutes.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Baca, May 27th, at the Caledonian Hospital, Brooklyn. Mrs. Baca and the baby, Louis Robert, are doing fine.

Emil Basch in his seventy-third year has become a grand-uncle of an eight-pound baby boy, born in the Fifth Avenue Hospital on Decoration Day.

Mrs. G. Commerdinger, of Neconset, L. I., was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. Elkin, and accompanied them on the bus excursion to the Gallaudet Home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Benedict and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Witschief, both of Godeffroy, N. Y., had visitors recently. They were Mr. A. D. Salmon, of Stanhope, N. J., and Mr. Charles McManus, of Newark, N. J., accompanied by Mr. Frank E. Beirne and Miss Harriet Gallagher, both of Port Jervis, N. Y.

Miss Margaret Hauberg, a teacher at the Arkansas Institution, sailed for Norway on May 30th. She will return early in September.

Odie W. Underhill, a teacher at the North Carolina Institution at Morganton, will be in New York this week.

Jack Ebin, the young president of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League, spent the week-end of Memorial Day in Boston, Mass.

The Jack Seltzers moved on the 31st ult. They now live very near the Fanwood School.

The Fanwood Alumni Association has postponed its card party to June 21st.

Sol E. Pachter was in Utica, Troy and Albany for a few days last week.

Mr. Robert Cohen announced his engagement to Miss Edna Hatzman, on May 24th.

CHICAGO

Samuel Frankenstein, the New York bond-broker who is in charge of the erection of the $10,000 De l'Epee monument at Buffalo this coming summer, spent a few days in Chicago with his many friends, late in May.

He was busy in Buffalo, arranging the final details, when he found he would not be needed between the 24th and 30th. He therefore hopped a train and came to the Capitol of Deafdom, where he was treated as a prince of the purple. Frankenstein made a nice address at the season's closing frat 500. May 24th, telling of progress made on the monument.

Frankenstein's appearance fanned the convention-bug anew, and it appears as if at least fifty locals will attend the convention, despite the hard times. President Roberts will step down and out from his office, hereafter devoting all his energies to the N. F. S. D. The race for his toga seems to be exclusively between Easterners—principally Lubin, Kenner, Porter and possibly Frankenstein, though the latter expresses no desire for the office. Meagher unqualifiedly declines to take the presidency under any circumstances, and no other Westerner of ability has been heard from to date.

Following the Saturday night meeting, Meagher took a party on a tour of the Hearst newspaper plant—Frankenstein, the Roberts, Miss Strandberg, Miss Nelson, Mrs. O'Neil, the Menkens, Miss Donohue, Dave Padden and Chas. Kraft.

The Robert Blairs gave a movie showing at the M. E. on the 22d, the proceeds going towards the M. E. rent. Blair donated his services, camera, and several reels he rented. About sixty-five attendants also enjoyed a one-act playlet given by the young ladies, entitled "College. Revisited." Personae:—

Good Gray Grad, '02. Miss Myrtle Nelson
Pony-riding "stude," 32.
His visiting sister. Miss Ruth R. Dore
Miss Jennie Reid

The Robert Blairs have given the Home for Aged Deaf a large electric kitchen clock. Chairman Milton Hart has ordered Matron Mrs. Hyman to purchase a baby electric vacuum sweeper at his own expense. Unlike most hearing folks on deaf boards, Hart is of real service without ever seeking honors or trying to dominate.

That evening Mesdames Frank, Dougherty and Roberts, were hostesses at the customary Sunday night 500 at the Pas-a-Pas Club, and a packed house resulted.

Chicago deafdom's growing colony of literati suffered a serious set-back when Johnnie DeLance, the wood-chopper poet, up and left it flat—late in May. His destination is said to be Florida. A call has gone out for replacements, and Crutch, of Detroit; Hetzler, of Indianapolis; and Terry, of Los Angeles; might be willing to come on condition that the locals find them soft jobs paying plenty of dollars per week. Fat chance. "All perish; art alone endures."

Father O'Brien conducted mass with Holy Communion at the Catholic deaf club chapel Sunday, May 25th, at 8:30 A.M., the usual number being present. After mass, the churchgoers went to the dining-room for breakfast, followed by social conversation.

The Frats, No. 1, held a "500" and bunco party at the Capitol Building, Saturday, May 24th, at 8 P.M., with a good attendance, it being the last affair for this summer.

Messrs. R. Shepherd and L. R. Bates, both dyed in the wool baseball bugs, witnessed the double header between the American Giants and Nashville Elites last Sunday, and rooted lustily for the home team to win, which had the desired effect, as they won both hotly contested games.

A "500" and bunco party was held at the Catholic deaf club house May 29th, at 8 P.M., a large crowd indulging in games for prizes.

C. O. Barden entertained a few friends at the Hotel Brookmount last Sunday. The event is one to be long remembered.

A large number of deaf people attended a fifty cents a plate dinner at the M. E. Mission Wednesday, May 28th, at 6 P.M., followed by social conversation, the proceeds going to the benefit of the church fund.

W. B. Gastons distributed among us beautifully decorated blotters advertising his laundry, the "Lone Star." Alfred Arnot took advantage of the close of a bindery for Decoration Day to go to South Bend, Ind., to visit his relatives for three days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Grant celebrated their first wedding anniversary last Saturday night. Quite a crowd assembling at their flat, where a glorious time was enjoyed by all.

The members of Pas-a-Pas Club enjoyed a "500" and bunco at the club hall Sunday, May 25th, at 8 P.M., with a good attendance.

Fred Goett is reported out of danger, following a serious operation for stomach trouble.

Mr. C. P. Poole's mother and sister, who have been patients at the County Hospital for some time, have sufficiently recovered to return home.

NEW MATRON SELECTED FOR STATE SCHOOL

A new matron, Mrs. Agnes Goders, of Milwaukee, has been engaged for the Wisconsin State School for the Deaf, to succeed Mrs. Mary Lewis, who resigned her position during the past week, and was married last Saturday to Mr. Thomas Cretney, of Madison.

The new matron for the State school, Mrs. Goders, was selected by the Civil Service Commission, and will begin her duties at the State school June 15th. She was formerly manager of the Antlers Hotel, Milwaukee, and was also matron in a large institution in South Dakota, previous to her coming to Milwaukee. She comes well recommended to fill the position as matron at the Wisconsin State School for the Deaf.

The annual Memorial Day exercises were held at Delavan, Wis. Because of the Wisconsin deaf school being closed for summer vacation at this time, the committee regretted that the school children did not participate in the parade this year. During the past years the State school has always given its fullest cooperation to the observance and help in the Memorial Day parade. Their absence this year was regretted by residents of the city.

Miss Edith Ross has gone to Minneapolis, Minn., this week on a ten-dollar round-trip excursion. She may remain there, if she sells her return trip ticket.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Wynn, of Cleveland, O., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sunday. They will remain indefinitely.

Arthur Hollis, who works as a packer at the packing department at the plant of Morris Company, is reported to be seriously sick abed.

The Gallaudet College-Alumni Association members had their annual dinner at the Sheridan Plaza Hotel, 4605 Sheridan Avenue, Tuesday evening, May 27th. Mr. L. Cherry is the president, and Mrs. James M. Meagher, the secretary.

NEW JERSEY

The Alumni Association of the New Jersey School for the Deaf held its second annual convention at the Republican Club, Trenton, N. J., last May 30th. A good crowd of the Alumni was in attendance.

There were two sessions, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon. The morning session was an eulogy on the life of the late John P. Walker, who was superintendent of the New Jersey School for the Deaf for seventeen years. James S. Reider, of Philadelphia, a lifelong friend of Mr. Walker, gave a very interesting talk.

The afternoon session consisted of a business meeting. The meeting was a lengthy one, dealing mostly with conditions prevalent in the school.

The following officers re-elected for another year are: President, Irvine Boleau, of Camden; first vice-president, Vito Dondego, of Trenton; second-vice president, George Brede, of Jersey City; secretary, Bernard Doyle, of Hillside; treasurer, William Bennisson, of Trenton.

FANWOOD

FANWOOD ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Annual Track and Field Meet of the Fanwood Athletic Association, was held on the Institution grounds at Fanwood, on Friday afternoon, May 30th, 1930.

The attendance despite the weather was large, and those who attended did not regret doing so, for it was a very fine meet. Many declared it the best for the past several years. Mr. Frank T. Lux must be complimented in the improvement.

Promptly at three o'clock, the affair started with the parade around the track by the contestants and members of the Fanwood Athletic Association, led by the Field Music Corps.

The Field Officials were:—
President of Games—Colonel I. B. Gardner, Principal.

Director of Games—Lieut. Frank T. Lux.

Judges at Finish and Field Judge—Dr. T. F. Fox and Frank Nimmo.

Timer—Mr. James T. Garrick.

Director of Music—Lieut. Edwards.

Starter—Lieut. Frank T. Lux.

Captain of Track—Cadet Captain Nicholas Giordano.

Clerk of Course—Mr. Anthony Capelle.

Assistant Clerk of Course—Cadet Lieut. Glass.

Prior to starting the games, Principal Isaac B. Gardner, of the Institution, distributed prizes to the members of the Fanwood Athletic Association, who ranked highest in various sports during the academic year.

Following is the program as carried out:—

220 Yards Run—Won by John Kostyk, time 24 seconds. Nicholas Giordano was a close second.

*Sam Kalmanowitz entertained with bag punching, and did remarkably well, even as good as his older deaf brother could, who left school two years ago, and was known to excel at bag punching.

440 Yards Walk—Won by Morris Davis in 1 min. 35 1-5 sec. Oscar Benison was second.

1½ Mile Race Bicycle Race—Won by Ernest Marshall. Time 5 min. 7 1-5 sec. Abraham Grossman was second.

The Misses V. Nickrach and Tauro, two pretty lassies, dressed as sailor boys in white executed the "Fleet" dance.

880 Yards Relay had four entries. The Fanwood Seniors won easily. Their time was 1 minute and 34 3-5 seconds. The Margat Athletic Club entry came in second.

Cadet Sergeant Felix Kowalewski, who only a few years since was one of the little boys, and when assigned to the printing office had to stand on a box to reach the "case" and has not grown much taller, entertained the large assemblage, by drawing cartoons. Miss Madeline Kauth, dressed in a dame of a decade ago, next made her appearance as an opera singer. She warbled some, and whether her notes were loud or low none knew—but she looked stunning and all admired her very much.

The Scarf Dance was the next feature, and was executed by Miss Rose DeGuglielmo.

The Pole Drill, by Intermediate boys, gave the onlookers an idea of how Mr. Frank Lux trains the youth in the gymnasium of which he is the Physical Director.

The games included:—

- (a) Centipede Race
- (b) Rescue Race
- (c) Black and White
- (d) "Retreat"
- (e) Japanese Cut Relay
- (f) 50 Yards Dash

The One Mile Run had the most entries. It was won by Frank Heintz in 5 minutes and 53 seconds. Chas. Terry came in second.

Principal Isaac B. Gardner then distributed the prizes to the winners, and in doing so complimented them on their success.

There was a pong-ping outfit, and from two till the close, players kept at it. Five cents a game was charged, and quite a sum must have been realized thereby.

Ere the affair was almost over, an aeroplane circled over the Institution grounds. Many thought that it was prearranged as an added attraction, but those in charge declared they knew nothing about it. Nevertheless, it was a pleasing sight.

NOTES

Barney Kindel, who learned sign-painting at Fanwood, has been doing some creditable sign painting on airport field lately.

The Fanwood Alumni Association whist and "500" card party at St. Ann's Church guild room has been postponed to Saturday, June 21st, 1930.

The Alumni business and social meeting will be held at the school on Saturday evening, June 14th.

The outing to Indian Point will be on Saturday, June 28th.

Israel Pincus, who is a member of the Silent Cinemina Club, kept himself busy taking pictures of all the events during the afternoon.

Among those present were Mr. John O'Rourke, who turned up unexpectedly. He met many of his acquaintances and seemed to enjoy himself.

Mr. William S. Abrams, who has not been seen at deaf-mutes gatherings for some time, was there. He was as brown as an African traveler, and volunteered the information that he was now a man of leisure.

The Fanwood Literary Association was entertained on Thursday evening, May 22d, by the members of the Pro-tem Society, with a playlet "Rip Van Winkle." It was very interesting and excellently rendered, and was gotten up under the direction of Cadet Lieut. and Band Leader Ernest Marshall, who played the leading role. There were seven scenes. The entertainment was in the nature of a surprise as none knew it was to be given. The cast of characters was as below:—

Messrs. Landon, Barr and Arden M. Robbins, Directors and members of the Committee on Upkeep of Institution Buildings, made an inspection of the buildings on Tuesday morning, June 3d.

ST. LOUIS

In the absence of the regular teacher of the Silent Bercans at the Christian Church, Rev. Barclay Meador, who had to go to New York on a mission, we had Mr. (Father) Wesley Bennett, who gave us a very good lecture, which we were glad to have.

Mr. Ernest R. Kidd, of Springfield, Mo., with Rev. Barclay Meador, Mr. and Mrs. William Stafford and their grandchild, Jennett Schneider, attended the Gallaudet Public School for the deaf at Carondelet Park on the 29th. It was a good and well arranged picnic and the children were so happy to be with their friends.

Mr. Alexander Schenck, an ex-boxer, the one that knocked out the Chicago boxer during the World's Fair in 1904, wants to sell his Ford.

The "500" and bunco party at the Alphonse Hall on May 30 was a grand success and netted a handsome sum for the Home Fund.

The Mr. and Mrs. Eudorus Harden Golden Anniversary was well patronized and all had a good time until midnight. There was music and many presents.

After a long delaying, the Illinois Association for the Deaf Proceedings are at last sent out. They met in Peoria, Illinois, August 7-11, 1928. The next one meets in Rockport, Ill., in 1931.

Mr. W. H. Schaub, the railroad man for the N. A. D. Convention from St. Louis, has announced that about the 2d of August the round trip fare to Buffalo will be $20.00, minus the berths. All who are going through St. Louis would do well to correspond with him. His address is 5917 Highland Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Decoration Day, May 30th, was a very quiet day at the Gallaudet Club, as many of the boys took advantage of the holidays in going out of the city.

The N. F. S. D. Division No. 24, will have its annual picnic at Rondenberg Park, Taylor and Broadway, Sunday, June 8th. A good time with games and dancing is anticipated.

Mr. William Dalton, who has been in the Missouri Baptist Sanitorium for two months, is well enough to return home. It is to be hoped that he will be himself again before long.

The Third Baptist on Grand and Washington Avenues had a good gathering Sunday June 1st, engineered by Mr. Thomas F. Joell, the Frat No. 24 treasurer.

Rev. A. O. Steidemann has organized a mission in East St. Louis, Ill., on 7th and Summit Avenues. We hope he will be able to do good.

The Gallaudet Club baseball team played at Jerseyville, Ill., May 25th. We are sorry to say that we lost the game, because our boys did not have enough practice. Boys, practice all you can and you will play well.

OFFICIAL

OFFICIAL CALL FOR THE SIXTEENTH CONVENTION OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF THE DEAF

In accordance with action taken by the Executive Board, call is hereby issued for the Sixteenth Convention of the National Association of the Deaf to meet in the City of Buffalo, State of New York, from August 4 to 9, 1930, Monday to Saturday, inclusive.

ARTHUR L. ROBERTS, President
FREDERICK A. MOORE, Sec.-Treas.

The laws of the Association require that the official call for the triennial convention shall be issued three months in advance of the meeting. As the convention is always held in the month of August, the official calls have generally been issued around May 1st. Therefore, the call for the coming convention at Buffalo is issued well within the time limit prescribed.

PROGRAM

The committee on program for the Buffalo meeting, Vice-President Kenner, chairman, Dr. Thomas F. Fox, Tom L. Anderson, have drawn up a tentative program, which is now being rapidly perfected. This includes arrangements for the literary program, speakers, etc., as well as program for the banquet, and exercises in connection with dedication of the De l'Epee monument. The Buffalo Local committee has practically completed arrangements for the various local and outing features of the program. We believe the arrangements now being made for the convention will fittingly commemorate the Fiftieth Anniversary meeting of the Association. An outline of the program will shortly be published.

FOREIGN DELEGATES

Invitations have been extended the foreign deaf to attend the Buffalo meeting, and particularly to the deaf of France, on account of the unveiling of the memorial to their illustrious countryman, De l'Epee. Reports from Europe, however, are not encouraging, on account of the economical depression there, but we hope to have a few of the foreign deaf present.

DE L'EPEE MEMORIAL

Chairman Frankenheim of the De l'Epee Memorial committee reports that satisfactory progress is being made on the statue project. The bronze casting has been completed in Paris, and is now being shipped to the United States. The foundation and ornamental base are now in process of completion on the site located on the grounds of the Le Couteux Institution at Buffalo. It is expected to have the memorial erected well in advance of the convention date, and ready for dedication on Thursday, August 7th.

TRANSPORTATION AND FARES

The president has secured from the various railroad passenger associations, in connection with the Buffalo convention a round-trip fare of one and one-half, provided one hundred and fifty passenger certificates are validated at Buffalo on Friday, August 8th.

Therefore, those going to Buffalo should be sure to obtain a certificate from their railroad agent when purchasing one-way ticket. If 150 certificates are validated at Buffalo, these certificates will entitle the holders to one-half fare returning to their homes. It is important, therefore, to obtain such certificates. All station agents have been advised of this arrangement, and no difficulty will be found in securing a certificate.

However, if there is an excursion fare from your town to Buffalo, and it is less than one and one-half round-trip fare, it would of course be best to purchase the excursion ticket.

The president has appointed Mr. Marcus L. Kenner, 200 West 111th Street, New York, to handle the special train from New York City to Buffalo; and Mr. J. Frederick Meagher, 3135 Eastwood Avenue, Chicago, to handle the Chicago special. Those desiring to enjoy the advantages of travel on these specials should communicate with the gentlemen above-mentioned well in advance, so they can make reservations.

Specials from other sections of the country will be arranged, if those desiring them will communicate with the president at once.

LOCATION OF SECRETARY-TREASURER
Mr. Frederick A. Moore, secretary-treasurer of the Association, is now located at 6681 Olentangy Road,

Worthington, O., not far from Columbus.

Those desiring to pay their dues in advance, and avoid the crush at Buffalo, should communicate with Mr. Moore at the above-named address. Send him your dues, or membership fees, and especially Life Membership fees, and make yourself solid for the future. Membership fee $1.00; Life Membership fee $10.00; annual dues $1.00.

AMENDMENTS

Amendments or additions to the laws of the Association may be submitted to the president in writing, and must be published sixty days in advance of the convention. However, changes in the laws may be made at the convention by a four-fifths vote, without previous notice. The Law committee of the Association is composed of Dr. Olof Hanson, chairman, 4747 16th Avenue, N. E., Seattle, Wash., Mr. Wm. H. Schaub, 5917 Highland Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., and Miss C. Belle Rogers, School for Deaf, Cedar Spring, S. C.

THE PRESIDENCY

The president desires to take this opportunity, well in advance of the Buffalo convention, to say that he will not again be a candidate for president of the Association.

His record of official service in the Association extends from the Colorado Springs convention, 1910, when he became a member of the Executive Board; elected secretary at the Cleveland convention, 1913; served in this capacity at the San Francisco convention, 1915; re-elected secretary at the Hartford convention, 1917; elected secretary-treasurer at the Detroit convention, 1920; elected president at the Atlanta convention, 1923; re-elected at the Washington convention, 1926.

This covers a period of twenty years of service. It is a long span in the life of any man, and it has entailed a great sacrifice in time, energy, and money. The bricks and boulders from the unthinking have been many and frequent, and the boquets few and far between. Any man in public life must expect this, and we are not complaining. On the other hand, we have thoroughly enjoyed this service for the Association, and such as it has been we have given gladly and without stint. We think that twenty years is enough, and at Buffalo the office will be turned over to some one able and willing to shoulder the burden. We can no longer carry it, in addition to be other work engaging our whole time and attention.

ARTHUR L. ROBERTS,
President.

The N. A. D. Convention

EDITOR JOURNAL: To the educators, teachers of the Deaf and those interested in the educational welfare, I have a word to say in the matter of conventions and conferences, particularly the National Association of the Deaf Convention, upon which our eyes are focussed for the discussion of important matters that calls for special attention in the betterment of education and such.

It is confidently anticipated that his coming convention in Buffalo will prove as successful and beneficial as the former ones that have been held in different sectional cities. That one in Washington was, programmatically speaking, a huge flop, with the exception of President Roberts' magnificent address, which had carried much weight with the leading educators. The literary program for the Buffalo convention, as recently given in your JOURNAL, shows an overabundance of entertainments and a dearth of paper-reading. What we need most is active and vital group meetings, or so-called "luncheon shop-talk conferences," at which every delegate is invited to discuss matters of every sort peculiar to his own ideas, and then, after collective thought and effort, offer his outline of his final plan essential to our deaf education for the consideration of the General Conference.

The willing spirit of co-operation on the part of aggressive leadership, backed up by a strong influential following, is of prime importance to the success of this N. A. D. assemblage, which will lead to new changes and better results in the future. This is the most effectual procedure of educating the outside (hearing) as to what we (the deaf) can accomplish and have achieved in the expanse of education, whether industrial, social, political or religious.

There are many High-brows and Low-brows—and they are in the same category of having nothing to learn and trying to learn nothing. Better be a Broad-brow—the one who neither scorns the current thing nor accepts it, but learns from it. Attend this N. A. D. convention and discuss intelligently and with a broad-minded vision matters vital to our educational enlightenment and solve problems that give us serious concern.

OFFICIAL

The Committee takes pleasure in advising that we have selected the Lehigh Valley Railroad as the official route to our convention in August, 1930.

We have arranged for a special train, consisting of coaches, parlor cars and diners to leave New York, Pennsylvania Station, at 8:50 A.M., Newark 9:24 A.M., on Sunday, August 3d.

The Lehigh Valley, offering the most picturesque combination of mountain, river and lake scenery east of the Rockies, is familiarly known as the "Switzerland of America Route."

The fare between New York and Buffalo is $14.29. As the reduced fare has been authorized for our convention, contingent upon 150 certificates being validated at the convention, the round trip fare will be $21.44. Parlor car seats are $3.00 each.

Tickets and information can readily be obtained by applying to Mr. S. W. Gafner, A. G. P. A. of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, 110 West 42d Street, New York City, or to the undersigned.
